

SW-VirCamp offers Social Work Teachers

- An opportunity of life long learning
- Development of ICT skills
- E-teaching: specific skills and competences in e-pedagogy and supervision of students on the Internet
- Research in an international field
- Development of new interdisciplinary courses f.e. in e-help service
- Collaboration among departments as health, teacher and social work departments

SW-VirCamp offers Higher Education Institutions

- An excellent tool for internationalising the curriculum
- Integration of an international specialisation into the social work BA programme
- Platform for international exchange and comparison
- Courses held in English
- Course in e-pedagogy
- ECTS credited courses according to the Bologna principles
- Low costs of a virtual learning environment
- Raising the institutional market position

SW-VirCamp offers Social Work Bachelor Students

- Collaboration with students and teachers from other countries
- Training of international professional competences
- A portfolio of several e-learning courses focusing on core issues of international social work
- 30 Ects credits in total
- Knowledge about Social work in Europe
- Intercultural sensitivity and awareness
- Flexibility in time and place by e-learning
- Raising chances of employability and labour mobility.

The aim of the seminar:

Partners in VIRCLASS later SW-VirCamp started in 2004 the development of online courses and have been running international e-learning courses in social work yearly since 2005. The VirCamp consortium wishes to extend the number of partners. We want by this meeting to inform HEI about the possibilities of e-learning in general, and especially within VirCamp, to see if this can match the aims of your institution.

Programme November 11:

10.00: Welcome

10.15 – 10.30: Willem Viets (Director of International Affairs, Inholland)
- The importance of Internationalization of the curricula of Higher Education Institutions (HEI).

10.30 - 11.15: Pieter Swager (Senior researcher at the E-learning Research Centre of Inholland university of applied science)
- The practice of e-learning, possibilities in HEI.

11.30 – 12.30: Anne Karin Larsen (Associate Professor Bergen University College).
- About SW-VirCamp and e-pedagogy.

Lunch

13.30 – 15.00: Workshop: Experiences from using Virtual Learning Material in SW -VirCamp. Demonstration of virtual cases.

15.00 – 15.15: Short Break

15.15 – 16.00: Poster presentations of experiences with online learning.

16.00 – 17.00: Time for questions and discussions regarding e-learning and SW-VirCamp partnership issues.

17.15 - 18.15: Results of the meeting, and a visionary final speech.

19.00 Dinner

Registration:

Please registrate by sending an e-mail to:

Remmelt.veenkamp@inholland.nl

Deadline for registration is 30 September 2011

Registration fee: €100

Leading institution:

INHOLLAND University of Applied Sciences, Haarlem, the Netherlands

Consortium Coordinator Remmelt Veenkamp

e-mail: remmelt.veenkamp@INHOLLAND.nl

Tel.: +31 (0)615279716

Partner institutions:

Bergen University College, Bergen, Norway

Contact: Anne Karin Larsen

e-mail: anne.larsen@hib.no

University of Complutense, Madrid, Spain

Contact: Andres Arias Astray

e-mail: astray@trs.ucm.es

Mannheim University of Applied Sciences, Germany

Contact: Ulla Törnig

e-mail: u.toernig@hs-mannheim.de

University of Nordland, Bodø, Norway

Contact: Siv Oltedal

e-mail: siv.oltedal@uin.no

K.H.Kempen University College, Geel, Belgium

Contact: Wim Wouters

e-mail: wim.wouters@khk.be

Mittweida University of applied science, Germany

Contact: Barbara Wedler

e-mail: welder@hs-mittweida.de

Web Address:

SW-VirCamp: www.vircamp.net

Social Work - Virtual Campus
“Campus without borders”

E-learning-
the international way forward

Invitation to a seminar

11 November, 2011
in Haarlem, the Netherlands.

The overall aim of SW-VirCamp is to meet the need of a knowledge based, intercultural, socially cohesive European society, by means of a broad and excellent programme of international comparative courses in Social Work.